New, medium-term sourcing strategy well on track

Sourcing footprint: less suppliers, different countries

- Portfolio consolidation:
  - Successful Preferred Supplier Program for T-Shirts rolled out to ‘sweaters’ (from 48 → 13 suppliers) and ‘outerwear’ (from 117 → 11 suppliers)
  - Roll out to other product categories in progress
  - Direct sourcing and blocking of fabric and yarn: achieve savings and ensure on time deliveries

- Best-cost-country-sourcing
  - Accelerated shift from southern China. Share of Bangladesh has tripled in last 6 months.
  - FOB advantage over (southern) China ca. 20%.
  - New Esprit sourcing office opened in Bangladesh.
Implementing best-in-class HR and IT functions to support future growth

- New Head of Global HR on board since December 2010
- Talent Management program launched to develop internal leadership skills
- New performance linked incentive system implemented

- Important milestone: Edc Women division went successfully live with deliveries
- Edc Men division will be next

5. SECOND HALF OUTLOOK
Outlook for second half FY 2010/11

- Retail
  - 5-10% full year yoy space growth

- Wholesale
  - Signs of improvement, but wholesale customers remain cautious with pre-orders. Specials and Injections offer opportunity
  - Continuous improvement of order book
  - Order intake for Jan – May 2011 shows only low single digit % decline

- Capital expenditure
  - ~HK$1.3 billion including HK$0.6 billion for stores; HK$0.3 billion on IT projects; HK$0.3 billion on the Europe Distribution Centre

- Sourcing
  - Sourcing market poses challenges on COGS. Measures taken to offset at least part of the cost increases short-term
6. CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES
Two years ago, Esprit decided to build and support a SOS Children’s Village in India. The official opening took place in October 2010.

The village provides new homes with essential livelihood support for children in need.

Oscar nominated actress, Maggie Gyllenhaal and her husband Peter Sarsgaard act as global ambassadors.

In November 2010, the BIG BANG campaign was launched to raise awareness for the children in the village in India.

Customers around the world participated in stores and online to make their bang count.
